Thank you to the Choir of York Minster, all Choristers and Musicians

Thank you to all of our choristers, Vicars Choral, Choral Scholars, and Musicians for all they do to sustain our worship. There have been concerts, broadcasts and special services in addition to the daily offering of prayer and worship which continues through the week. As we come to the end of the choir year, and read-out retiring Choristers, Vicars Choral and Choral Scholars at Evensong today, a huge thank you to the whole team for bringing joy and beauty into our worship and enabling our prayer. The last two years have taught us that we cannot take anything for granted, so we give thanks today for all of our musicians, and all who sustain and enable worship day by day. We look forward to welcoming a number of Visiting Choirs who will sustain our worship over the summer months. Canon Vicky

New light and sound installation to illuminate York Minster this October

A new light and sound installation from the award winning creators of Northern Lights will illuminate York Minster during October half term to help raise funds to conserve the cathedral's medieval stained glass and stonework.

Platinum and Light is a new projection and sound artwork from artists Ross Ashton and Karen Monid, who created the spectacular Northern Lights installation which ran at York Minster in October 2019.

The new show, which will run for eight nights from Thursday 20 to Thursday 27 October, is inspired by Her Majesty The Queen's Platinum Jubilee and uses precious metals through the ages, including gold, silver and platinum, to journey through moments in York's and the Minster's history and their royal connections.

The events will help raise funds for the Minster's current project to conserve the medieval St Cuthbert Window, which is one of the largest surviving narrative windows in Europe, and the stonework of the surrounding South Quire Transept.

The events will open on Thursday 20 October with the first show at 9pm, and then run daily until Thursday 27 October with two showings each evening at 7.30pm and 9pm. On Sunday 23 October the shows will be at the earlier times of 6.30pm and 8pm.

Tickets are available here and cost £7.50 each, or £25 for a family ticket for up to two adults and two children. Bookings are available by ringing: 01904 557200.
